17th April 2023

Dear Parent/Carer,

As we broke up for the Easter holiday, we communicated some very sad information to you about the tragic loss of one of our pupils, Isabel Connolly-Wellock.

The funeral for Isabel will be at 2pm on Wednesday 19th April 2023 at St Anne's Church in Egdeside. The family have invited any staff or pupils who wish to attend to do so.

As a mark of respect for Isabel and to facilitate staff and pupils getting to the church, All Saints' Roman Catholic High School will close at midday on Wednesday. We apologise for the late notice of this and for any inconvenience this may cause but hope that we have your understanding in these particular circumstances.

Any pupils wishing to attend are asked to attend in full school uniform as they will be requested to form a guard of honour as the coffin is carried into the church. Any adults attending are asked to wear an item of purple which was Isabel's favourite colour.

Pupils who receive Free School Meals can pick up a packed lunch when they leave on Wednesday at midday. These must be ordered by emailing the office by the end of school on Tuesday. Office@allsaintshigh.lancs.sch.uk

The school has also set up a Just Giving page in memory of Isabel which is raising funds for the charity chosen by the family, The SEPSIS UK Trust. The link to the Just Giving page is <https://www.justgiving.com/fundraising/isabel-cw>. The school will also be organising future fund-raising events for the charity.

Please pray for Isabel and her family, friends and the school community and thank you for your cooperation.

Yours Sincerely,

Mr X Bowers
Executive Headteacher

Mr S Wilson
Head of School
